By FRANK LaPIERRE

With the time and money that has thus far been expanded toward studying the possibilities of redevelopment in Daly City it appears likely that the city's planning staff will recommend approval of some type of project when the planning commission meets later this month.

The Times has learned, meanwhile, that City Planner John Walker will recommend that redevelopment on a smaller scale than has been previously

A Colma sea captain ordered out of his home after an altercation with his wife apparently decided Friday that if he could not live in his home neither would anybody else live there.

Miner Charles Richardson, 58. allegedly splashed gasoline around the home at 755 Larchmont Avenue and set it afire about 1:45 p.m.

He was arrested, charged with arson by Broadmoor police and jailed in Redwood City in lieu of $50,000 bail.

The court had ordered Richardson to vacate the premises by Friday, June 1. According to reports. Richardson, captain of a merchant ship for the Pacific Far East Lines, had a dispute with his wife. Victoria. on May 8 in which she required treatment at Mary's Help Hospital for cuts arrive at the fire scene. He said flames and smoke were pouring from the home and Richardson was calmly standing in front of the blazing single story wood structure in the otherwise quiet residential neighborhood.

Richardson allegedly confronted both officer Nickas and Police Chief Ray Savage, telling them he had set the house on fire himself

Good morning, good cooks.

A greeting and a call for help to you good cooks who specialize in Italian cooking. A reader has written asking for a recipe for an Italian biscuit made with eggs, flour and baking powder. The method of preparation is unusual. Cut out the biscuits, allow to rise and then boil and drain on paper towels. Bake until Since I'm asking a favor, I'll offer a favor. This cake is delicious and simple to make. You just layer the ingredients into the pan and bake.

MAGIC FRUIT CAKE

- 1 can apple pie filling (20 oz.)
- 1 can crushed pineapple (15 oz.) undrained
- 1 can coconut (4 oz.) package yellow cake mix
- 1 cup chopped nuts
- 1 cube butter, melted

Pur the canned apples into a 9x13-inch pan. Next the undrained crushed pineapple, coconut, one package yellow cake mix, one cup chopped nuts and drizzle the melted cube of butter over top.

Bake in 350-degree oven 45 minutes or until golden brown. Serve topped with whipped cream or ice

An interesting and tasty combination that is quite different, using spaghetti and cabbage in a casserole is my next offering.

SPAGHETTI AND GREENS

- 3/4 cup spaghetti, broken into one-inch pieces
- 112 tablespoons margarine 112 tablespoons flour
- 12 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup milk
- 1/4 lb. cheese, grated (about 1 cup)
- 2 cups shredded cabbage

Bread crumbs Cook the three-fourths cup spaghetti in boiling water: drain well. In a small pan melt the one and one-half table- accompanying the physicians chairman of the Pro-Life Comspoons margarine. Stir in the one and one-half tablespoons flour and one-half teaspoon salt and allow mixture to bubble over medium heat. Add one cup D.C.'s Dance milk and stir until sauce is smooth. Add one cup grated cheese and stir until cheese is melted and sauce again smooth.

Lightly grease a one and one-half quart casserole and place alternate layers of cooked spaghetti and shredded cabbage. Pour sauce over top and sprinkle with bread crumbs. (No amount of bread crumbs given so I used about one-half cup fresh bread crumbs sauteed in butter.) Cover, bake in 350-degree oven for 40 minutes. During last 15 minutes of baking time remove the cover. Serves 4.

A new way to serve French bread that is so good that you will have to fight to keep from taking that third slice.

FRENCH MUSTARD SLICES

- 12 cup soft margarine or butter
- 1/2 cup snipped parsley 2 tablespoons chopped gree nonions
- 2 tablespoons prepared mustard
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice

Pro-Life Issues Campaign

Plans are being formulated for physicians from Mary's Help Hospital, Daly City, to join with other Bay Area physicians in a campaign aimed at educating the public on pro-life

This program is the outcome of a discussion on the right to life held between Robert D. Kelly, M.D., medical coordinator at O'Connor Hospital, San Jose, Frank J. Zarka, M.D. president of the O'Connor Medical Staff, and the Rev. Joseph Pritchard of St. Martin's parish in San Jose.

Father Pritchard invited the two physicians to speak on the right to life and the rights of the unborn at all Masses on Sunday, March 11. After each Mass, the physicians were available to discuss any aspect of their speech and to answer questions. In addition, literature on the right to life was distributed.

"We met with a measure of success," said Dr. Kelly, 'enough to stimulate us to try it at another parish and to have other physicians audit

Since March 11. nine physicians have joined the campaign, and this group has covered all the Masses at six parishes in San Jose and three in Northern San Mateo County.

In addition, other groups are beginning to show interest in the campaign, according to Dr. Kelly. The physicians have been joined by members of the St. Francis of Assisi Council of the Knights of Columbus in Saratoga-Cupertino, who are

WHY DON'T FARM WORKERS HAVE THE SAME RIGHTS AS OTHER WORKERS?

We at Safeway think they should. We've thought so for seven years, and have stated repeatedly that farm workers should have the same rights as other workers to organize and bargain collectively. They are entitled to free and open elections, with secret ballots, for deciding which, if any, union will represent them.

These rights have long been protected for workers in commerce and industry. We see no reason farm workers should not have equal rights.

Because we think it is high time for everyone to recognize these facts, we are making this public appeal in support of impartially supervised free elections covering farm worker labor contracts.

The following organizations are among many who have indicated to us that they favor secret ballots for farm workers. We urge their support, and the support of all other interested parties, in seeking immediate steps to schedule free elections in farm labor negotiations.

More Political Tumbo Jumbo

THE WEATHER TOMORROW will be rain with intermittent hail. I feel safe in making this forecast inasmuch as it has always been crummy weather when the Greater Daly City Chamber of Commerce holds its annual golf tournament at the Lake Merced Golf Course. And tomorrow is when it holds the tour-

TONIGHT, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 6, is when there will be a public hearing at the Daly City City Hall by the Jeff Elementary School District Board concerning appointment of Mrs. Carol J. (Jeanne) Kennaugh to fill a post on the district's Personnel Commission. There are three seats on the Commission: One is selected by the board, another by the State Personnel Commission, and the third member is selected by the

NOW. IF YOU haven't been following some of the quick steps being soft-shoed out by the male majority of the district's Board of Trustees — which will change on July 1 with the swearing-in of Trustee David Parker and the fond farewells to board chairman Albert Collett - you would not know HOW Mrs. Kennaugh was eslected to fill the State section of the appointed

HERE'S WHAT HAPPENED - Mrs. Kennaugh was already a member of the Commission in the spot appointed by the school trustees. That term will expire this December and the trustees would either reappoint or replace her. There was little likelihood that Mrs. Kennaugh, who waged a bitter campaign against Parker and trustee Dorothy Adams, would be reappointed. They both confess they are not overly enthused with Mrs. Kennaugh's work on behalf of the district's classified employees. S-o-o-o, trustees Edwward Tomasello. James Cranna and lame duck trustee Al Collette last month pushed for her appointment to the vacancy created by the resignation of Thomas

THE FUNNY PART, if you can find humor in this political mumbo jumbo, is that Noonan was himself appointed under similar circumstances. All that is required, it seems, for the state to okay appointments like these is for the majority of trustees to recommend such an appointment. But the carryings-on in this appointment are, in this reporter's opinion, a good lesson

ATTENTION ALL those folks in the proposed redevelopment area of Daly City: There is NO pot of gold to be had under the relocation allowance laws directed by the state. If you live in an area slated for redevelopment and must be moved, the Redevelopment Agency does not, and probably will not, have to pay a relocation allowance. This allowance is only for those people who meet the requirements of being in a low income group and need the extra funds to find another home P.S. This almost always excludes absentee landlords, we are happy to pass along.

INTERESTING ASIDEM — Crime in the proposed redevelopment area of D.C. isn't as bad as some paint it. Car clouts, auto burglaries, car thefts, purse snatches. rape. armed robberies, and the general run-of-themill crimes against people that the nasties pull off nowadays. are lower in District 7 (Parkview north to the county line and up to the top of the hill on Mission than they are in District 13 carea around the city's Civic Center, which houses the police department). District 7 reports to date 78 such offenses while District 13 logs 88 crimes. Serramonte with only 51 reported is the lowest, followed by the Cow Palace area (but excluding the Palace) with 52. And before the folks in Westlake start beating their chests we want to point up the fact that there have been 84 such crimes in District 8 - westward from the Lake Merced Golf

YOU GOTTA BE KIDDING - Boy, they take their Personnel sessions seriously in Daly City. We got an agenda for such a closed door meeting the other day and instead of "executive meeting" it read "Execution meeting." Guess that's one way of cutting the

ASKED WHAT SHE wanted to do more than anything else in her life. Mrs. Dorothy Adams, trustee at the JESD, replied, "Cross the Gobi Desert by camel. Doesn't everybody? (If I said she sounds like "Florence of Arabia" would you be angry? I thought so!)

IMAGINE IF YOU CAN, living to age 140? Bah, humbug! That would be 140 candles on the cake, enough to touch all the fire alarm system a block away. But this life expectency is what medical researchers are now predicting. What a life it would be; unions arguing for shorter work weeks (perhaps two days of four hours each) and doctors keeping us alive for 140 vears. No thanks. I'm already tired of hearing the same political balderdash thrice over and I just don't think I could stand to hear the same lines repeated over and over again for 140 years. Or 120 years, for that matter!

Alcatraz Opens This Fall for Tours

By AL QUALE

Tiny Alcatraz Island, which has housed some of the world's most notorious convicts, was invaded last Thursday by two boatloads of newsmen.

"For the first time since the island was ceded to the United States (from Mexico in 1848) it will be open to the public for tours this fall," announced William J. Whalen, superintendent of the Golden Gate National Recreation Area.

Within minutes after the boats pulled up to the battered piers on the east side of "The Rock." newspaper reporters and cameramen began swarming over the 22-acre island.

isolation in the middle of San Francisco Bay. 'And that was Al Capone's cell, up there at the end, on the second tier," said Park Ranger-

Tour Director David Ames, pointing to a small steel cubicle where the late Chicago crime czar was incarcerated.

As Ames led newsmen through the prison cellblock, the footsteps produced hollow sounds which vibrated slightly through the eerie corridors. It wasn't hard to realize that these were the same corridors which were once home for infamous gangster figures like Scarface Capone, Machine Gun Kelly and Robert F. Stroud - the Birdman of Alcatraz. The public will be afforded the same type of tour, according to Ames, who led newsmen to "the solitary confinement cells where prisoners were locked up in total darkness.

It was refreshing to step from the solitary confinement cell area out into the windswept recreation yard, covered mostly with concrete, with the exception of a small weed-covered baseball diamond on the far

Second hase couldn't have been more than 10 feet from the back wall where inmates probably plotted escape attempts while snatching up grounders.

Newsmen pushed open a large steel floor near the baseball field and walked out of the yard onto the hillside, which was covered with a surprising abundance of flowers. Ice plant, geraniums, lilies and roses provided a pleasant contrast to the stark and putrid colored cellblock building.

This was Alcatraz's second face, the flowers and fig trees and perhaps one of the most beautiful views of San Francisco Bay. For a moment it was hard to imagine that 1,576 of America's meanest federal convicts were incarcerated there until Alcatraz was shut down 10 years

But they were. And the real face — the real history — of Alcatraz wa back "inside

Leaving the tour group I walked back into the cellblock building, empty of reporters except for a television newsman recapping his story near "The Birdman's" cell.

I climbed the stairs to Capone's cell. Cracked plaster peeled from the walls. On the far side was s small commode and tiny sink. The bunk was gone. The cell couldn't have and six feet wide.

I pulled the master lever at the end of the corridor, opening and closing at least 30 cell doors in unison. Slamming the lever upward produced a dull thud as the doors slammed shut.

The prison library was empty except for a half-burned desk vandalized during the Indian occupation of 1969. The room was quiet except for gusts of wind pushing through broken window panes on the upper levels of the

The boat whistle blew and the newsmen converged on the dock area for the one-mile trip back to Fisherman's Wharf.

One of the three caretakers who now live on the island stood on the dock.

"It's a great place to live," he said, noting he has been on "The Rock" for a year.

"You can breath out here," he added. Behind the caretaker several puppies played, Gretchen, one of four sentry dogs on the island, had given birth to 10, he explained. Besides playing with the puppies, the caretaker was asked,

'What do you do out here?' "Mostly I sit on my butt." he replied.

It seemed a fitting reply. So many others had done just that. And they had also done it on Alcatraz. But their circumstances were totally different. And they would not have been playing with Gretchen's pups, they would have eventually been guarded by them.

By waiting until May of this year to get going, the senators have that the President was aware what the final answers will be. forum in the very midst of inceedings

Little wonder, therefore, that Archibald Cox, the special prosecutor, wants the committee to halt its work. He is legitimately concerned that the hearings jeopardize actual and Watergate defendant be tried by jurors who are free of prejudice and bias engendered by the show in Washington?

Moreover, the senator members are not trained interrogators. McCord, for example, was not pursued as he might have been by a determined adversary. The four Democratic members could hardly be expected to worry about the 'accused." Tessage for Us

As the nation bowed its head for the annual Memorial Day fete, a few of its citizens met at the Olivet Memorial Park in Colma to honor Americans who died in their country's service. The ceremonies were excellent with wreathes being placed on the military terrace by groups of veterans and by gold star mothers.

We came away filled with the solemn thoughts of the speaker, Raymond Neal, from Washington, D.C., and those of the Master of Ceremonies, Joe Pape. Many of us will long remember Paul Walti's rich voice as he sang, "My Buddy."

The services at Olivet Memorial and those at the Golden Gate National Cemetery in San Bruno were made more beautiful by the flags that were placed on the graves by Cub Scout packs. During the day at the National Cemetery a breeze caught the thousands of flags and made them flutter in unison to provide a most inspiring scene.

A SCENE, INDEED, that recalled the words of Ralph Waldo Emerson when he called for "a day of reason; of the clear light; of that which makes us better than a flock of birds and beasts.

As this column has said before, Emerson speaks to our age with a voice that is loud and clear.

Emerson knew that society seems an illusion to the young citizen. "It lies before him in rigid repose, with certain names, men, and institutions, rooted like oak trees, round which all arrange themselves the best they can." But, he advised the young to understand that "society is fluid; there are no such roots and centers, but any particle (part of society) may suddenly become the centre of a movement and compel the system to gyrate round it."

To those persons who say they are not interested in government and politics, he wrote, "but politics rest on necessary foundations and cannot be treated with

Said Emerson, "Republics abound in citizens who believe that the laws make the city, that grave modifications of the policy and modes of living, that employment of the population, that commerce, education and religion may be voted in or out . . . But the wise know that foolish legislation is a rope of sand. which perishes in the twisting: that the State must follow, and not lead the character and progress of the

EMERSON KNEW THAT it is foolish to act as though a given issue has but one side and to suppose that one who does not agree with this or that point of view after viewing the facts is a stupid or malignant person. Differing points of view should "make us tender of such as are not persuaded. The hardest selfishness is to be borne with."

He advised people in public life, "Let us withhold every reproachful, and, if we can, every indignant remark. In this cause we must renounce our temper, and the risings of pride." Emerson wrote these words for his Emancipation address even though he was a leading abolitionist and did not like the slave holders or their policies.

Emerson believed that "languages must be raked, the secrets of slaughterhouses and infamous holes that cannot front the day, must be ransacked, to tell what Negro-savery 'indeed any racial inequities) have been" and after the raking, the words and phrases that suggest inequality must be washed out of the tongue. We must learn, he wrote, "that the civility of no race can be perfect whilst another race is

"IT IS A DOCTRINE alike of the oldest, and of the newest philosophy, that a man is one, and that you cannot injure any member, without a sympathetic injury to all members.'

Emerson foresaw our age and our problems and spoke to us. His essays should be read by vast numbers of our citizens.

Airport's Traffic Hits High

Passenger traffic increased 11.6 per cent and air freight volume was up 15.9 per cent during April at San Francisco International Airport, both new records for the month.

The airport handled 1,217,779 passengers during the month and moved 52,513,751 pounds of freight, according to figures released last week. The percentage gain in both areas was the largest for any month since November, 1972. said William J. Dwyer, director of airports.

For the first 10 months of the fiscal year that ends June 30. the airport had handled 1.3 mil-Lion more passengers than in the year-earlier period.

Air freight volume complimented the increase in passenger traffic by showing a gain of 27.264.111 pounds over the same period in 1972.

April shipments of U.S. mail by air declined 16.9 per cent to 14.822.405 pounds and air express volume increased 13 per cent to 1.428,314 pounds

Scheduled aircraft movements - arrivals and departures - for April gained 7.6 per cent to 25.341 over 23.567 a year ago. Total aircraft movements was 29.342. including 432 by military aircraft and 3.599 in general aviation categories - non scheduled carriers, private and-or corporate aircraft.

Paper Claims Papan Aide In Campaign

The Sacramento Union Saturday alleged that Bruce Gray. administrative aide to Assemblyman Louis Papan of Daly Ciey, had been working as an unpaid volunteer, under an assumed name, in an election campaign in Stockton.

The Union said he was managing the campaign headquarters of Carmen Perino, candidate for the post vacated by the appointment of Bob Monagan to the Department of Transportation in Washington. The election will be held June 12.

The Sacramento daily named Gray as one of two men working on the Perino campaign while employed full-time as administrative aide: the other was an aide to Assemblyman Leo T. McCarthy of San Francisco Gray was alleged to have been working on the campaign for the past month under the name of Bryan Green.

When first contacted by the paper, he reportedly told them he was working on a full-time basis to advise and help out. When further questioned, he redefined his role as merely driving down and spending a couple of hours a day and weekends.

The Union said that Perino told them that their involvement came as a result of a meeting of Papan and McCarthy.

McCarthy is currently vying Assemblyman Brown, also of San Francisco. for the speaker's post expected to be vacated when and if Bob Moretti officially announces his candidacy for governor.

But perhaps more amazing than what Mantle was able to do despite or regardless of his injuries, was his performance as a L switch-hitter. It was in this area that he established records many of which have never been approached and which may never be broken, in competition with some great players. Following are some of the more outstanding marks:

NINE TIMES hit home runs with both hands in one game (no one else has done it more than three times - teammate Tom Tresh and Reggie Smith of the Red Sox); only switch hitter to ever win Triple Crown; highest American League batting average (.265, 1957); highest slugging average in one season (.705, 1956); most runs scored in AL (132, in both 1956 and 1961); most home runs in a season (54, 1961; most home runs, two consecutive 0 stickers for the Colts with three More 5; OLM Raiders 15, OLM seasons (94 - 1960 and 1961); most home runs in a league (536); most homeruns in one month (16, May 1956); most total bases in a season (376, 1956); most long hits, season, AL (79, 1956); L most extra bases on long hits, season (190, 1961); most walks in a 0 season (146), 1957); most RBI's, season (130, 1956); and fewest 2 times grounding into DP, seoson (2 - 1961).

Forget the injuries. There is no doubt that Mantle was clearly 4 the greatest switch-hitter who ever played the game, and may 6 forever be Ed Goodson is hitting .330 and playing good defensive ball. Which may mean that Charlie Fox was right all the time)

That trade was tantamount to the Giants trading Sam Mc-Dowell, Dave Goodson and Chris Arnold to Montreal for Coco

We've seen middle-aged men in some of the community gyms do the same thing, making them from right out where the pros make them. But put those high school kids on the line in a prep game. and they'll miss maybe three or four out of 10. And we'd wager that if they were put on the same line in front of a pro crowd with pro players leeking at them, they'd be lucky to make two of 10. Do the same thing with the middle-aged man, and they'd have a coronary before they even got to the line.

Want To Know The Honest Truth About Ground Beef? . . . It's This: NOBODY Can Guarantee Its EXACT Fat Content

There's been lots of talk lately about the fat lean ratio in ground beef. So why not label each package: Contains X% of fat? Let us tell you why. We've been making ground beef just about as long as anyone and we know there's no way to make two batches that are exactly alike. Two samples taken from the same batch (or even the same package) can differ in ratio of fat to lean. Even with meticulous care in selecting ingredients, there are variations in fat lean ratio. Even with our most modern grinding and mixing equipment. Even with use of the best available fat-measuring devices. Yet we know our customers want and expect us to provide them with a choice of ground beef products to meet their varying preferences, tastes and budgets. After long and careful consideration, we have concluded that we can best meet our customers' need for variety by offering just two ground beef products—REGULAR and PREMIUM. We make both kinds from fresh chunks of beef. We prepare both kinds with equal care to maintain the top quality which has helped earn our fine meat reputation.

Our REGULAR is made the way we believe most families prefer their ground beef, It contains enough fat to assure full juiciness in the cooked meet. It makes marvelous hamburgers, meat loaves, meat balls, spaghetti sauce, Salisbury steak and other delicious dishes. Our PREMIUM is made to please families that want a leaner ground beef. It shrinks less in cooking and makes wonderful ground beef dishes of all

Why not try both kinds and see which is preferred by the folks at your house? (You might even want to make a mix with some of each.) The femous Safeway money-back guarantee applies, of course, to our ground beef as to all of our other products.

Animal Cruelty on the Increase

By JOHN HORGAN

Gracie is one of the lucky

With one of her hind legs in a cast, she can rest now in the security and comfort of the backyard.

The six-month-old kitten suffered six fractures recently and she was still somehow able to hobble back home. dragging the tattered leg be-

Quick work by veterinarians saved the leg although it will probably never be quite the

It has been surmised that she may have fallen from a fence or tree. She was not struck by a car.

But one of the vets. Dr. William Hand Jr. of Millbrac, brought up what had been the unthinkable until then; that Gracie might have been the victim of some foul play at the hands of a human being.

"It could be," Dr. Hand offered. "You never know. This sort of thing has been happening around here lately. Better not to even think about it."

But Dr. Hand is correct. Cruelty to animals does indeed seem to be on the increase.

In San Mateo County over the past month, there have been at least a half-dozen sordid reports of gross cruelty to animals, most of them in the North County.

Cats and dogs have been abused and some have been maimed and killed in separate incidents.

In one particularly shocking Daly City case, a boy allegedly broke a cat's legs one at a time and then teased a dog into attacking the helpless cat. The boy finally crushed the cat's skull with a baseball bat. The boy has since been arrested by police authorities.

What leads a younyster to commit such acts?

Psychiatrists aren't entirely certain but they have some fairly firm ideas. Dr. William Ayres of San Mateo. who deals frequently with children, says it has been established that cruelty to animals usually arises out of a lack of kindness in the child's own life experiences.

"There is normally a deep reservoir of anger which has not been expressed." Avres says. "Often, the child exists in an atmosphere of cruelty or be is associated with cruel

Ayres stresses that children vary widely. "Some of them can be very sick. Some of them don't even know what they're doing to the animal. Some are cruel unwittingly. If the child is very young, he might not be aware of what he is doing to the animal."

Dr. Hugh Ridlehuber of San Mateo agrees with much of what Ayres tays and he goes even further.

"I treated a boy who used to strangle cats and dogs," Ridlebuber says. "This child had been born out of wedlock and his needs were not attended to when he was young. He felt frustrated in those first few years. Rage built up inside him. And he took out this anger on helpless animals.

"He felt helpless and frightened as a child and vented his anger on creatures who felt the same way he did when he was younger. In general, cru-

It is also Ridlehuber's belief that nations themselves go through periods when sadism among their people increases. "It is likely that we in America are going through one of those times." he states. "There is a crisis in this country right now. Our morality, our values and our priorities have come into grave

Nutrition For the Elderly

The month of May was named National Senior Citizens' Month

by Presidential Proclamation. The event has come and gone rather quietly - symbolic of the lack of attention the elderly often receive.

The proclamation stated: "Senior Citizen Month. 1973. must be something more than a time for renewing our commitment to government efforts concerning older Americans. It must also be a time for strengthening those human bonds which ensure older Americans an active and honored place in our families, our communities, and our nation." More than two million Californians are age 65 or over. Older persons are especially interestcd in maintaining good health and in anything which promises to add years to their lifetime. a major reason for their diet concerns. They hear many promises, often from sellers of vitamins and minerals and from convincing writers, of good nutrition resulting in better health and longer life However, while good nutrition is vital, it alone is no: enough to guarantee these

Nevertheless, the nutritional. status of older persons is often very poor - either from inadequate life-long eating and drinking habits, lack of nutrition knowledge, bad teeth, poor motivation to eat well, or from inability to obtain adequate food.

Oldsters often have one or more chronic diseases closely related to diet, incluling circulatory diseases (such as high blood pressure and atherosclerosis), softening of the bones dental problems, overweight, diabetes, and disturbances of the digestive tract or kidney

The nutritional requirements of the elderly remain as high as younger adults but their energy needs are usually less. Because of this their diets should consist of abundant amounts of foods high in nutrients such as fruits! and vegetables, milk or milk products, meats (or proper substitutes such as poultry, fish, beans and cheese), and enriched breads and cereals. Consumption should depend on individual energy output. This is easily measured by checking the bathroom scales once a week. Special care should also be given to eating food sources of vitamin A. B vitamins, vitamin C, calcium and iron.

Our Grand Opening is now open.

And we're proud as punch Our saunas are steaming and the pool is cool. We've got the home fires burning in our Rec Lounge. It's a nice touch, but it's nothing compared to the sunsets that blaze behind our oak covered hills. We did our best and nature added the finishing touches.
